

Welcome Home Assembly

Part 2

6th June 2007

“About 230 sleeps ago, lots of you said goodbye to your dads. When anyone goes away, we miss them and life isn't quite the same. Here we show how it feels when someone goes away – that's the grey. But when those we miss come home, the colour comes back into our lives. Over the last seven months, no matter what has happened, we've been here for each other... ”

The song: “No Matter What”

The Padre, who had also been with our dads in Iraq, led the prayers. We thanked God for bringing our dads home safely; for our school family; and for an end to all the fighting..."
